

WS

Morn-
Part-ool at ubject worth

ce is must be e pro-
l edu-people which mend must home

riday.

home
2.
nesday,
visit-y, at mers?

nted.
 county
 r the Crunk
 Giant
 practhe licity
 ys.
 and

and Miss
unday ning away-Me-turns mily.
e and Dian

ing-
They
alley.
as S. went ham.
ights
; be-ained
logs

were Fred
p in
Mrs.
Gold-
obile
avid,
with monia

y at Paris,
years
and many Rich-

part y his was d to e he busi-

d of State
Mr.
3. 2

and tend-dow,
sons,
scar.
dson,
Rich-
versa-1:30.

been s in thel.
r of nion

inter-
and two new Hall,

Jack

cher Social
 a of dson.

Har-
Mrs.
Mrs.

em-
and on ner
the ort

nd-
on-ek

with
Co.
su-
with rst
Sol-

vis, sic
ave

ses gh at 6.
red
was at Ki-

ed,
ay
ive
orn kit
nd
ri-

ht or er

AUCTION

Any job of Auctioneering
Call Norway 29-3
L. J. BROOKS

"Painting That Pays"

Pure White Lead and Oil properly mixed and applied, make our jobs "stay painted." Phone 629-2

MICHELLE & HARDING
Painters and Decorators

16 Main Street, Norway, Me.
Hampden

WEST PARIS—TRAP
Paakonens Given Shower—Mrs.
Gone to Boston

Mrs. and Mrs. Chester Pie
Newfield spent Monday night
Pierce's
Frank Verrill recently en to Stanwood Park, Farmington daughter, Mrs. Nelson Perha ily.

Mrs. Mary and Minnie St
Norway, Thursday.

Mrs. Hattie Danforth a
B. Doughty called on Mrs.
worgy.

Elroy Dean attended the and visited at Merritt Saw night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulfas Pas given a surprise house war
one house, Wednesday.

Wall Papers Hangings

All branches of Beauty Culture
Cor. Main and Bridge Streets

returned from East Chicago. They have been spending several days here. Mrs. Chester Lahti is the sister of Mrs. M. J. Lahti. Miina Mikkonen has gone to Chicago where she has employment.

Tel. 363

Margaret Gilman
Gladys Greenleaf
Norway

ARTHUR TUCKER

Now is the time to send in your orders for the McWain String Beans.

Given Reception

The women's division of Bureau held their regular 2, and four end tables were served to the following: The menu was as follows: toes, meat loaf, tomatoes, bread, fruit jello, cranberry sauce. A special meeting was appointed on reconditioning the Jefferson Chapter, No. 1, to hold its regular meeting, Oct. 3, with a good attendance. Reception was given to duty, Mrs. Ida Farnum, who was to give a paper on "The Future of the World." The president, Mrs. J. H. Farnum, presided.

EAST WATERFORD, ME.

Mail orders to Arthur Lucke:
Norway Lake, Star Route.

CLAPBOARDS

1., Rebutted

Mrs. Claude Cushman and were in Lewiston one day.

Mrs. Robert Johnson and from Keene, N. H., were in last week.

The Ladies Aid will have supper, October 15th.

The young people in teaching a drama to be played at of the Baptist Church.

The Parent-Teachers Asso-their first meeting Thurs-the schoolhouse.

Stephen Davis and Leona wise, and little son were Rolling Asphalt Roof Paint.

to $1.35 per gallon (bulk).

Greenlaw Co.

Paint Builders' Hardware

WAY, ME.

Mrs. Homer Farnham, students, Mrs. and Mrs. George Locke's Mills.

Mrs. Daphne Rowe of Rye, Alice Bedding and son, Verner, were recent callers on Whitman. Mrs. Rowe and her schoolmates of Mrs. Miss Traffon of Galesburg engaged as assistant in the Boston last week to spend

ALLEN—WEST

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Estella Goodridge, Miss

ENTERPRISE OF COLUMBUS

ous had the spirit of enter-

Joseph "Araucan" Two tallies were in play. The guests were served by the present were Mrs. Paulene Bennett, Mrs. Maurine Abbott, Mrs. Francis Clara Hutchinson, Mrs. and the hostess.

Arthur Hutchinson of his relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph John, and daughter Alice Mass., were recent visitors.

NORTH NEW

Frank Ferren, Jess

ed more than his object

NATIONAL BANK
MAINE
MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM
INC. 1872

Miss Carrie Wright at dren were at home over and Mrs. Robert
Roger Hanson w
at Hartley Hanson's.
Walter Vail has ret
Virginia and is driv
Dave Enman and I
recent over night guests
com's.

School did not keep count of the convention schools in town are to party and box supper 31st.

SOUTH RUM

us H. C. A.

Combined with Screen Grid
There are nine tuned circuits, as come average receiver. These provide operation, just as eight cylinders in enjoyable riding qualities and great
Now model 80 at Ashton's before buy-
$6.00 Complete

at the club house. The a great success. Pla feed about one hund came that scores we ter nearly two hundre
food was all gone. Th
vocal and instrumenta best talent in town. In even Andersson. Fro Whynought, Mr. Hol
ter and Robert Frenc
by a little Burdin girl
day night dance foll
was packed with danc
Much credit is given t
who had full charge o
tainment, clearing

ANSON SCREEN GRID—

REME MODEL
 "ion" combines every essential quality radio enjoyment, tone control, sensitivity, volume and tone.
1.00 Complete

ESTIC
 ent—any price you can afford. You ore to see, hear and select the radio
 me.
Range in Price from

Ida Morse, was held Wednesday, Oct. 1, with eighteen members, a children. The dinner
Martha Spaulding,
and Mrs. Thersa H.
dinner of scallops, s
and coffee.

Mrs. Belle Jones
visiting her sisters,
and Mrs. Kate Clark
Wallace Clark and
Mrs. Jones and Mrs.
guests of Mrs. Abner
cottage at Weld Po
Mrs. Effie Virgin
and Charlotte, who h

a big discount.

ing them in.

Drug Store
AY, MAINE
ist Always In Charge

the Lane camp at the day.

WEST

The New England changed their lines phone office at East has been at West.

The son of Mr. a is sick with abscess.

Mrs. W. R. Glover, Hattie Curtis, Mrs. Lee Bingham, tor on the telephone.

Albert Eastman school at West 1 much so far.

100

[illegible]

WEST PARIS—TRAP CORNER

Paakonen Given Shower—Miss Mikkonen Gave to Boston

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Pierce of West Paris, spent Monday night at Ellwood, N. H.

Frank Vanill recently enjoyed a trip to Seaboard Park, Farmington, with his daughter, Mrs. Nelson Perham, and family.

Mrs. Mary and Minnie Stevens were in Norway, Thursday.

Mrs. Hattie Danforth and Mrs. H. P. Danforth called on Mrs. Earle Trevelyan.

Edna Dean attended the World's fair and visited at Merritt Savin's, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Paakonen were given a surprise house warming in their new home, Wednesday evening. The guests brought refreshments and a social evening was enjoyed.

Mrs. Edith Emery and baby son have returned from East Otisfield, where they have been spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Lamb.

Miss Mikkonen has gone to Boston, where she has employment.

BRYANT POND

Farm Bureau Meeting—District Deputy Given Reception.

The women's division of the Farm Bureau held their regular meeting, Oct. 9, at Bryant Pond. Tables were made. Dinner was served to the Sew-away 4-H Club.

The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

A social meeting was appointed Oct. 16, at Bryant Pond. The program was as follows: mashed potatoes, meat loaf, tomatoes, white and dark bread, jelly, cocoa and coffee. A social evening was enjoyed.

ALBANY

A number from this vicinity attended the North Waterford fair and report a large crowd, same as usual.

W. E. Canwell and family are being visited by his sister from Mechanic Falls.

Dr. L. P. Symonds and wife were callers at Preston Flint's, Thursday.

Symonds, when a young girl lived in Albany and was a great friend of the Flints.

Otis Holt and son, Harold Holt, and family of Norway, called on their cousins, Preston Flint and sisters, Sunday, and also Wilbur Holt from Florida called at the same place. He had not visited his cousins for eighteen years.

Will McAllister was in Norway on business, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cox spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Canwell.

NORTH WATERFORD

Rice Neighborhood

On account of the World's fair there were no services in the North Waterford church on Sunday, Oct. 12, preaching service at 10:30 and Sunday school at 11:30.

Mrs. Chas. P. Saunders took dinner, Sept. 29, with Mrs. C. A. Hersey.

The officers and teachers of the Sunday school met with Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Saunders recently, to talk over plans for the coming year. Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Brandon were also present.

Friday evening, Sept. 26, some 50 people met at the home of Chas. Hersey and had a corn roast. Hot dogs, marshmallows and apples were also roasted. Following which songs were sung and a good time enjoyed by all.

Chas. Learned is getting his camp nearly built.

Suoma and Senja Mackie and Ruth Durgin from Bridgton spent the week end, recently with Mr. and Mrs. Saunders.

Mary and Malvella Hersey were supper guests there, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Brandon, Mrs. Crouse and Mrs. C. A. Hersey attended the Farm Bureau meeting at Waterford, Saturday, Sept. 27.

On account of sickness, Mrs. Mary L. Hersey went to Locke Mills to her father's on Sept. 27th to stay a while.

NO. WATERFORD—ALBANY LINE

E. K. Shedd worked for Roland Littlefield, Monday, with his team.

Several parties from New Hampshire have been in this vicinity looking after apples this fall.

Ernest Brown sold his apples last week. Walter Lord did a fine business serving meals through the North Waterford fair and every available place to sleep was taken up and many were turned away.

Lee Lord and wife of East Stoneham spent Sunday with his grandmother, Lydia Shedd. It was his twentieth birthday. He received several good presents.

Many hunters have been through here after woodcock and partridges. They seem plenty as many have been shot.

Mrs. Bessie Barlett gave Mrs. E. K. Shedd some beautiful flowers, recently, also some lovely plants. She has one of the best garden of flowers and vegetables of any one in town. Roy Wardwell has a wonderful flower garden. He specializes in gladioli.

James Kimball has some extra nice field corn this year.

Mrs. Robert Hill is in a hospital in Massachusetts. An operation was successfully performed on her throat last week. She is as comfortable as can be expected.

E. K. Shedd raised one hundred bushels of good potatoes this season.

Many deer have been seen this fall. Lydia Shedd recently purchased a fine driving horse of Perley Grover of East Stoneham.

Wm. Fisk attended the Fryeburg fair, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cummings will move into their new home this week. It is a lovely and most convenient one.

Lee Lord is working for his father, Walter Lord.

The bushes have all been cut on the Albany roads this fall. Looks very nice to see them.

E. J. Flint has his potatoes all dug, a nice lot.

Wm. Fisk has some splendid cabbage this year, large and solid.

SWEDEN

Harold and Herbert Stone of Lovell have been at their place cutting wood.

Mrs. Cleora Saunders and Elmer were in Portland, Saturday, Sept. 27.

Frank Keniston and family, of Bridgton, were recent callers in town.

Mrs. G. R. Kimball and Myra and Mrs. Abbie Chadbourne of North Bridgton and Pannie Parker of Cornish were at Alice Perry's, Sept. 27.

The county commissioners have recently been in town on business.

Recent callers at Alice Perry's were Mrs. Everett Chapman and children, also Mrs. Blanche McKee and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Erickson of East Stoneham.

Clayton Tower has been plowing several days for R. B. Nevers.

Harold Stone helped Charles A. Saunders dig his potatoes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bell were recent callers in this section of the town.

Forest Hutchins has been suffering with a severe cold.

Sweden Grange, No. 134 held an evening meeting at the Town Hall, Sept. 27th.

W. S. Mann has finished his work on the Millard Adams' bungalow and is now doing carpenter's work at Bridgton.

Mrs. Lizzie Spears has just been visited by her cousin, Dora McLeas, of Norway.

The first frost for the fall struck at the Plummer homestead, Oct. 3rd.

Sweden was well represented at the World's fair on Saturday.

Percy Grover and wife and Harry Rydell were visitors at E. S. Plummer's, Sunday, Oct. 5th.

Walter Stover is making elder at his new mill on Clayton Tower's place. He has a nice new camp that he has built this fall to live in. It is a cozy little place. Then up on the Wyman Nevers' place, Benjamin Gerald and wife have built a nice little camp this fall and are living in it.

Wendy Plummer laid their old horse, Leon Dillon, to rest this fall. She was 26 years old in June and was sound as ever except her teeth.

SWEDEN—BLACK MOUNTAIN

Mrs. Freeman Dyer and two children called on Mrs. Linaeus Bowley, and also on Mrs. Mary Moore, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Whitehouse called on her mother, Mrs. William Bryan.

Roger Bryan is sick in bed.

Horace Larrabee of Bridgton lost his dog, recently, and Minnie Moore found it last Thursday, and returned it to Mr. Larrabee receiving a reward.

Mr. Corson of Bridgton was through this vicinity selling fish, last Thursday. Messrs. Moore and Freeman Dyer have finished working in the woods here on Knights Hill for Linaeus Bowley.

Those who attended North Waterford fair were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moore and daughter, Minnie, and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Tower and three children, also Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Perry and their two sons, Richard and Sidney. A nice time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Hodgkins and Mrs. Wiley have moved to Hunt's Corner, where Mr. Hodgkins has a job working in the woods.

Mrs. Harry Moore was a Sunday caller at Mrs. Freeman Dyer's.

NORTH PARIS

Charles Ridley and family motored to Wayne, Sept. 28, to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shaw and daughter, Roberta, of Portland, Mrs. Sadie Silver of South Paris were callers at C. W. Childs, Saturday, Sept. 27.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Lowe, Mrs. Amy Farrar, Mrs. Luella Becker, Mrs. Emily Young were recent callers at B. C. Lowe's.

Mr. and Mrs. Floreston Pierce and children and Frank Kimball motored to Bear Pond and Lake Auburn, Sept. 28.

Charles Childs has a new Atwater Kent radio.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Ross and Mrs. Hibbs of Hebron were Sunday callers at John Ross', recently.

Mrs. Lee Dunham, Miss Marion Perkins, Mrs. D. H. Perkins and Hilda Hata attended the fair at Biddeford, Sept. 28.

James Gibbs was called by Monticello, where his son, William, was taken ill. He returned with him, Friday morning, Sept. 26. He is under the care of a physician at his home here.

Miss Marion Perkins was in Norway, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Ross and Jessie Weston motored around the mountains, Sunday, Sept. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Pierce of West Newfield called on his cousin, Floreston Pierce, recently.

Anthony Maddix of Rumford visited his brother, Steve Maddix, at L. J. Trask's, Sunday, Sept. 28.

Miss Hazel Smith of Newry was a caller at S. E. Coffin's, recently.

Miss Phemie Ross and friend of South Paris were callers at her parents', Mr. and Mrs. John Ross', Sunday, Sept. 28.

Clarence Coffin moved to Rangeley Lakes, Sunday, Sept. 28.

BUCKFIELD—NORTH END

Levis Buck of West Paris, Grover Keene and Eugene Hazelton are picking apples for C. L. Hammond.

Mrs. Carrie Fuller and son, Lester, spent a few days at Rumford with Mrs. George French, recently.

Mrs. Susan Morse remains about the same; Mrs. Darling of Auburn is caring for her.

Maudant Rowe, Sr. is on the gain. His son, Maudant, Jr., with his family from Trap Corner spent a few days with him, recently. Maudant, Jr. cut his foot badly while splitting wood and is under the doctor's care.

Mrs. George French of Rumford called on Ernest Cutting, Sunday, Sept. 28.

Miss Laura Cummings spent a night, recently, with her schoolmate, Miss Margaret Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. James Judkins and two sons were in the place, Sept. 28, calling on old neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Parlin and Garfield Judkins took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Hammond, Sept. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Barrows of South Paris were also callers there.

Mrs. Emily Scott of North Buckfield is caring for Mrs. Eugene Hazelton.

Callers at Eugene Hazelton's, Sept. 28, were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McKee and Mr. and Mrs. George McKee of South Paris, Arthur Meserve and Mary Cobb and Asa Keniston of Norway called on Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. McKee, Sept. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Adams of North Fryeburg visited their brother, Perley Adams, Sunday, Sept. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett McKee of South Paris visited their sister, Mrs. James Gupitli, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Cobb attended a meeting at Baker, W. I. Bull's, Monday evening, Sept. 29.

Mrs. Perley Adams, Mrs. Otis Cobb and Mrs. Chester Holt and son, Arthur, called on Irene Adams, recently, at South Waterford.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Cobb and Lawrence, Carl and Gertrude McKee attended the corn roast at Charles Hersey's at North Waterford, Friday night, Sept. 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hobson went to Portland, recently.

Walter Jordan and family from North Raymond called Sunday afternoon, Sept. 28, on Howard Ames and family.

Conney Severy and wife from Mechanic Falls called Sept. 28 on Miss Cynthia Jordan.

Rev. Wolcott and wife from Mechanic Falls called Sunday night, Sept. 28, on Howard Ames and family.

Russell Baker from Connecticut has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Baker.

Ben Dyer and son, Howard Dyer, worked for Howard Ames, recently.

Ellsworth Scribner is attending Casco High school.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

Forest Edwards is gaining slowly.

NORTHEAST LOVELL

Levis Rowe has gone to Buckfield to work.

Orrington Rowe is having a new kitchen door laid in his home place here.

A number from this part of the town attended the Fryeburg fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clark of Bethel called on Mrs. Marion Kendall, Wednesday. They were on their way to Fryeburg fair.

Elmer Andrews has exchanged his car for a new Studebaker; also Chester Rowe has a Whippet.

Clinton McKean sold a beef creature to Saunders of Sweden.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmon McDaniels, Clayton Rose and friend of Vermont were callers at the Kendall's, Wednesday evening.

Muriel Barnes attended the teachers' convention at Bridgton, Monday.

Clinton Milliken and Arthur Curtis are building a hen house for Mrs. Henry Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kendall and two daughters, Pauline and Iva, Muriel Barnes called on Mrs. Abbie Trask in Locke Mills Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Elmon McDaniels of Lovell called on Mrs. Webster McAlister, Thursday afternoon.

The Rise of Tom Hadley

By C. F. Whitman

CHAPTER XX

Clearing Skies

Maudie, impatiently: "Where have you been, Charley?"

Charley, evasively: "With Tom. We went up on Round Cap to look at the stars."

Maudie, scornfully: "That is queer. I didn't know before that either of you were interested in the heavenly bodies."

Charley, dissembling: "Well, we were tonight, anyhow."

Maudie: "What about our rehearsal?"

Charley: "Tom said we could meet at the church an hour before meeting."

Maudie, doubtfully: "That is very strange. He never suggested such a thing to me."

Charley, more confidently: "Hadn't you noticed that he was appearing cool towards you and kept out of your way all he could? I guess it's because the parson is showing you so much attention."

And people, too, talking about it."

Maudie: "Are they? They had better pay attention to their own affairs. Did Tom say anything to that?"

Charley: "No, nothing to me, but he is quite out of himself tonight. Always makes some excuse when I ask him to come to the house. There's a great change in him which you must have seen. You see if he comes here next Sunday to dinner."

Maudie: "What was Tom saying so earnestly to you tonight that you didn't like?"

Charley: "Oh, nothing of importance—something we disagreed about."

Maudie: "That's stranger still. I didn't know you ever disagreed over anything. What was it about?"

Charley: "Well, we did disagree on a matter tonight. I want to go to bed now after our tramp—I'll tell you about it some other time."

Maudie knew that Tom's manner towards her was rapidly changing and divided the cause, but she felt that if he did really care for her, he deserved to be punished some for letting another step in and take the place he perhaps might occupy. Maudie was satisfied from what Charley had said to her that Tom was responsible on account of his change of conduct towards her, that there was a rehearsal that she was to have, and that there was something he had kept from her. From Tom's manner in his talk to Charley, she knew that it couldn't be so light and trifling as Charley would have her understand it to be. Tom's change towards her, however, overshadowed all other considerations.

That very week some of the young folks had started a course of dances. Charley had taken part in his partner, Elliott, Miss Ada Turner, Sydney, Miss Josephine Harris; Bob secured Bessie as his partner; Victor Whiting, Miss Mary Randolph; and after that, Mr. and Mrs. Long and Miss Marian Weston. There were others, of course, but these are all who are of moment to this narrative. Maudie had secretly hoped that Tom would not take part in them, but she had been wrong. Charley, who had always taken her to such parties, now had a sweetener to look out for. He had expected Tom to take Maudie, but Tom was "in the dumps" and had no heart for the gaieties of the season.

The crisis came in their relations, Sunday after church, when Tom declined accepting the invitation to dance with Maudie. He had been quite cool and distant to both Maudie and Charley, Betty, too, seeing the unpleasantness and not having been over cordial herself, to Charley, who excused her, and she went home with them. Mr. and Mrs. Benton were greatly disappointed at this unexpected situation of affairs. Maudie was not very much surprised—except in Betty's not going to the dance. Her brother had told her on Friday evening. Charley, however, felt the most uncomfortable of any one, for he knew that his bad slipover was responsible for the present unpleasantness. And what he felt certain that Tom would make no explanation to anybody, Betty's following Tom's example, disconcerted him and he determined to see her the following forenoon and make matters right if he could, so that she would not break with him for good. He retired to bed early in the evening, but it was a long time before he slept and when he passed into unconsciousness, his sleep was broken and troubled by dreams. In one of these he thought that his lapse from virtue had become known to the public, his family, and Betty, and that she had turned against him and cast him off and he was a pariah in society whom the best people shunned. The horror of his imaginary situation awoke him, and he found drops of perspiration covered his forehead, and it was a long time before he dropped to sleep again. This dream had a profound impression upon him and he realized, as nothing said to him by any one could have done, what a plight he was in and the necessity of getting out of it and staying out at whatever humiliation it should be to him.

After Charley had gone to his room, Maudie fled to her father and nestling on his breast as she had often done when in trouble, she whispered: "Oh father, it's too bad when we were all so happy."

Mr. Benton choked with emotion while gently stroking her hair, managed to ask: "What is it—that troubles—my pet?"

Maudie: "I do not know exactly, but I feel that a great calamity has fallen upon us out of a clear sky."

Mr. Benton: "And I feel that way, too, dear, and I don't understand what it all means."

Maudie: "There is trouble between Tom and Charley, and Tom is cool to me and won't come here any more. I've affronted him, I suspect."

Mr. Benton: "How have you done that? You have never done or said anything against him. I am quite sure."

Maudie: "Oh no, not that father, but don't you see?" she broke off and a sigh escaped her.

Mr. Benton, gently: "No, I don't. What is it dear?"

Maudie: "Oh father, I don't like to say. I don't want to be presumptuous and he may not care—but I suspect that Tom is affronted because the minister has shown me so much attention, and Charley says people are talking about it. I don't like that, but how can I stop it?"

Mr. Benton: "Then you don't care for him?"

Maudie: "No indeed, father. He is very talented and a good man, but I could never love him."

Mr. Benton: "I'm very glad, dear, to hear you say that. It takes a great load from my mind and I would not be very choice for the husband of my splendid girl, but if your happiness depended upon your having one whom I didn't exactly like for any reason, I should try to make the best of it for you."

Maudie: "Here she drew her face down to her's and kissed him—'but how did you come to allow the minister to show you so much attention?'"

Maudie: "I thought once that Tom cared for me, but he has never said any tender things, only praise such as any one might say that didn't mean much of anything. I wanted to go to the dances. Charley always took me, but now he has left Betty as his partner and I'm left at home."

Charley thought so too—I wouldn't go with any one else—but he hasn't said a word—won't go himself—stays at his boarding place while his sister goes with Bob."

Mr. Benton, confidently: "Now I understand it all dear. Tom thinks the world of you—almost worships you—but his spirit is high and he feels his dependence, and was waiting till he had accomplished something worth while for himself and had acquired a home for you before he said anything to you. Of course there is no need of that. His noble mind and the qualities are worth more than money and property. I had my own plans for him, but I couldn't tell him just yet about them. I was afraid, that they had misheard, but from what you have told me I am quite sure that everything will come out all right."

Maudie, in a whisper: "Are you sure, father, that he cares, and if he does, he ought to say so to me, hadn't he?"

Mr. Benton: "Yes, of course, he should tell you what is in his heart. He has never directly said anything to me, but I am as certain as anything can be of the one being in the whole world who is everything to him. And this, with the way you feel, pleases me very much—how much one can ever tell of another's heart."

Maudie: "Depressing weight from my mind. There is no longer a dark cloud hanging over us. All will now turn out right, never fear. Go to bed, dear, and be happy."

Charley, who had been waiting for a further word, for her heart was too full for furtherance. She had confidence in her father's judgment and felt that somehow, friendly, if not tender, relations would be restored.

Before going to the bank to perform his duties as assistant cashier, Monday forenoon, Charley called to see Betty. She saw from his demeanor that he came to her in a contrite spirit and though she dearly loved him, she determined to show him that she was not to be too easily mollified and to get some binding promises from him before taking him back upon his former footing and the following shows how well she managed the matter:

Charley, meekly: "Good morning, Betty. I came to ask your forgiveness for disappointing you so much Friday evening. I can't bear to have you appear so cool to me as you have been since then."

Betty, kindly: "Whose fault is it, Charley, if I am cool? You have been very devoted to me, and now you go and spend the most important week with these fellows at the club, rather than with me."

Charley, eagerly: "Has Tom been telling you anything?"

Betty: "No indeed. Tom has his faults, I presume, like everybody else. He will keep his mouth shut and be blamed by your sister to shield you. I don't see how you can allow that."

Charley: "What? Tom must have been shooting off his mouth to you."

Betty, decidedly: "He hasn't, I tell you. He doesn't even know that I follow him. He hasn't seen him since Friday evening and saw him go into the club room and soon come out with you and go away where probably he thought he could have a good talk with you and not be seen. I'm sure he hasn't seen you so happy all this time and you haven't said one word to excuse yourself."

Charley, contritely: "There is no excuse, Betty, dear. I'm to blame, but I'll never do it again. I do mean to cause you any unhappiness. Indeed I didn't. And I'm so sorry. Isn't there some way for us to get back on to our old footing when we were so happy?"

Betty: "There ought to be, but it all depends upon you."

Charley: "How! How! I'll do anything you say, Betty."

Betty, eagerly: "Oh will you Charley? Will you give up your club for me?"

Charley: "Yes indeed, I will, but you must promise to be mine and I'll ever be yours. You are more to me, Betty, than all the clubs and everything else in creation."

Betty: "Oh Charley! Charley! You have made me very, very happy."

Charley: "You have made me very, very happy. I'll never do it again. I do mean to cause you any unhappiness. Indeed I didn't. And I'm so sorry. Isn't there some way for us to get back on to our old footing when we were so happy?"

Betty: "There ought to be, but it all depends upon you."

Charley: "How! How! I'll do anything you say, Betty."

Betty, eagerly: "Oh will you Charley? Will you give up your club for me?"

Charley: "Yes indeed, I will, but you must promise to be mine and I'll ever be yours. You are more to me, Betty, than all the clubs and everything else in creation."

Betty: "Oh Charley! Charley! You have made me very, very happy."

Charley: "You have made me very, very happy. I'll never do it again. I do mean to cause you any unhappiness. Indeed I didn't. And I'm so sorry. Isn't there some way for us to get back on to our old footing when we were so happy?"

Betty: "There ought to be, but it all depends upon you."

Charley: "How! How! I'll do anything you say, Betty."

Betty, eagerly: "Oh will you Charley? Will you give up your club for me?"

Charley: "Yes indeed, I will, but you must promise to be mine and I'll ever be yours. You are more to me, Betty, than all the clubs and everything else in creation."

Betty: "Oh Charley! Charley! You have made me very, very happy."

Charley: "You have made me very, very happy. I'll never do it again. I do mean to cause you any unhappiness. Indeed I didn't. And I'm so sorry. Isn't there some way for us to get back on to our old footing when we were so happy?"

Betty: "There ought to be, but it all depends upon you."

Charley: "How! How! I'll do anything you say, Betty."

Betty, eagerly: "Oh will you Charley? Will you give up your club for me?"

Charley: "Yes indeed, I will, but you must promise to be mine and I'll ever be yours. You are more to me, Betty, than all the clubs and everything else in creation."

Betty: "Oh Charley! Charley! You have made me very, very happy."

Charley: "You have made me very, very happy. I'll never do it again. I do mean to cause you any unhappiness. Indeed I didn't. And I'm so sorry. Isn't there some way for us to get back on to our old footing when we were so happy?"

Betty: "There ought to be, but it all depends upon you."

Charley: "How! How! I'll do anything you say, Betty."

Betty, eagerly: "Oh will you Charley? Will you give up your club for me?"

Charley: "Yes indeed, I will, but you must promise to be mine and I'll ever be yours. You are more to me, Betty, than all the clubs and everything else in creation."

Betty: "Oh Charley! Charley! You have made me very, very happy."

Charley: "You have made me very, very happy. I'll never do it again. I do mean to cause you any unhappiness. Indeed I didn't. And I'm so sorry. Isn't there some way for us to get back on to our old footing when we were so happy?"

Betty: "There ought to be, but it all depends upon you."

Charley: "How! How! I'll do anything you say, Betty."

Betty, eagerly: "Oh will you Charley? Will you give up your club for me?"

Charley: "Yes indeed, I will, but you must promise to be mine and I'll ever be yours. You are more to me, Betty, than all the clubs and everything else in creation."

Betty: "Oh Charley! Charley! You have made me very, very happy."

Charley: "You have made me very, very happy. I'll never do it again. I do mean to cause you any unhappiness. Indeed I didn't. And I'm so sorry. Isn't there some way for us to get back on to our old footing when we were so happy?"

Betty: "There ought to be, but it all depends upon you."

Charley: "How! How! I'll do anything you say, Betty."

Betty, eagerly: "Oh will you Charley? Will you give up your club for me?"

Charley: "Yes indeed, I will, but you must promise to be mine and I'll ever be yours. You are more to me, Betty, than all the clubs and everything else in creation."

Betty: "Oh Charley! Charley! You have made me very, very happy."

Charley: "You have made me very, very happy. I'll never do it again. I do mean to cause you any unhappiness. Indeed I didn't. And I'm so sorry. Isn't there some way for us to get back on to our old footing when we were so happy?"

Betty: "There ought to be, but it all depends upon you."

Charley: "How! How! I'll do anything you say, Betty."

Betty, eagerly: "Oh will you Charley? Will you give up your club for me?"

Charley: "Yes indeed, I will, but you must promise to be mine and I'll ever be yours. You are more to me, Betty, than all the clubs and everything else in creation."

Betty: "Oh Charley! Charley! You have made me very, very happy."

Charley: "You have made me very, very happy. I'll never do it again. I do mean to cause you any unhappiness. Indeed I didn't. And I'm so sorry. Isn't there some way for us to get back on to our old footing when we were so happy?"

Betty: "There ought to be, but it all depends upon you."

Charley: "How! How! I'll do anything you say, Betty."

Betty, eagerly: "Oh will you Charley? Will you give up your club for me?"

her in the family. Why can't all this tangle now be straightened out? I can see through it, if you will help."

Tom: "Of course you will. Mr. Benton, if there is anything I can do. You can depend upon that."

Mr. Benton: "Glad to hear you say that. My boy, Mr. Benton feels very much worked up because you and Betty did not go home with us to dinner, Sunday. She fears that you have deserted us."

Mr. Benton: "I am very sorry to disappoint her. She has been so good to me. I'll do anything to please her and you."

Mr. Benton: "Why don't you go to the dances with the young folks. You are needed with them. There is not likely to be so much levity and looseness where you are and you don't want to be odd. It would please me very much if you would."

Tom: "Oh, Mr. Benton. I didn't think you'd say that."

Mr. Benton, interrupting: "Come up to the house tonight to supper, my boy. I'll send Charley for you and Betty, and we'll have a jolly time and restore good feeling all round."

Tom: "Hadn't it better be tomorrow evening? It will give more time to—"

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

Mr. Benton, interrupting again: "No, no. We'll take it right at the time. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine. The girls and boys did their parts fine."

ALBANY—FERNALD'S MILLS

George Logan is working for Preston Flint for a short time.

Merle Barker has returned to his work at Carmel, N. Y., where he has been for the last two years.

Wendall Barker is now boarding at Mrs. Winnie Emery's.

Hilda Logan is sick and unable to attend school.

Mrs. Flora Nason went to Lowell for a short visit and took in the Fryeburg fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

BOLSTERS MILLS

Mrs. Ethel Ingersoll spent the week end with her mother, Mabel Jilson and grandfather, Brackett Small.

There was a nice entertainment given by the 4-H Club, Friday night. The girls and boys did their parts fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, Mrs. Carrie Logan and family, Clarence McAllister and his mother, attended the birthday party of Mrs. James Kimball at the church vestry. A very pleasant evening spent, enjoyed by all.

